Effective January 15, 2018 to May 31, 2018

NO PURCHASE OF ANY KIND IS NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN. A PURCHASE OF SPONSOR PRODUCTS WILL NOT IMPROVE YOUR CHANCES OF WINNING

SPONSORS: The Lee Ritenour Six String Theory Music Competition (the "Competition") is sponsored by: Yamaha Corporation; Berklee College of Music; Blue Note Tokyo; Line 6; Crown Guitar Festival & Workshop; Concord Records; Premier Guitar Magazine; D'Addario String Company, Music Connection, Xotic Effects and Woodshed Recording Studio (collectively, the "Sponsors"), subject to the following terms and conditions.

The Six String Theory Competition is a nonprofit benefit corporation with the objective of promoting, supporting, and encouraging musical mastery, artistry, and education for individuals seeking careers in live and recorded musical performance.

ELIGIBILITY: An Entrant (Individual) must be sixteen (16) years of age or older at the time of entry, and possess a valid form of identification (no top age limit). An Entrant under the age of eighteen (18) shall require parental consent to participate due to international travel involved in prize winnings. Invalid or ineligible entries shall be excluded from consideration. Employees of Sponsors, their respective parents, subsidiaries, affiliated companies, and agents, and foregoing employees' household or immediate family members (defined as parent, spouse, child, sibling, or grandparent) are NOT eligible to enter Contest. By their submission of entry, Entrants warrant they are legally entitled and authorized to make such submission on their own behalf. In the event of a dispute as to the winner's identity, entries will be deemed made by the holder of the email account associated with the entry. Void where prohibited by law or restricted. Subject to all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations.

The Contest is open to Non-Professional & Semi-Professional Musicians of all nationalities. An Entrant may not be a Professional Musician and may not be signed to any major label with world-wide distribution. Professional Musicians are defined as a musician who is making 100% of his/her living from professional music endeavors such as teaching music lessons (i.e. 30-60 full time students); touring full-time with a band; doing session work full-time (records, t.v., film, commercials, pit orchestras, etc). For example, if an applicant teaches a few students or does some gigs, shows and sessions, they would not be considered a Professional Musician. We realize it is subjective defining what a Non-Professional or Semi-Professional. is but we are providing some general definitions for guidance. The qualifications of a Non-Professional Musician will ultimately be at the discretion of the Six String Theory Management Team. Previous Six String Theory Grand Prize Winners cannot re-apply, however previous Semi-finalists, as well as previous Six String Theory applicants may re-apply.

TIMING: Contest begins on January 15, 2018 and continues until May 31, 2018. Entries must be received by 11:59am (EST) on May 31, 2018 to be eligible. Winners will be announced by the 2nd week of June 2018 after judges have given their final scores. Early Bird Registration is $25 from Jan. 15-March 31, 2018. Registration is $35 from April 1-May 31, 2018.

How To Enter:

One Entrant (Individual) must submit two (2) unedited YouTube Videos, no longer than 5 minutes each and with no camera stops, of themselves playing their instrument by registering at: <http://www.sixstringtheory.com>.

Entries may be comprised of original songs or covers, and may be solo performances or accompanied by others. It is recommended, however not required, that one of the two videos submitted be performing live with other musicians (it doesn't have to be a public event). This gives the judges an idea on how you play with other musicians. If accompanied by others, only the entrant is eligible to win and receive prizes. It is acceptable to submit a non-original composition; provided that it is not "copying" the performance of another musician. In all entries, the interpretation of the melody and solo of that song must be original in flavor and content. Only one submission allowed per applicant. If multiple entries are submitted in any one category of music, only the first submission will be considered, and all entries subsequent to the original submission will be void. If you are registering in more than one guitar category of music, then you submit 2 videos for each separate registration. If you choose to register in 2 instruments, then you must submit 2 videos and a separate registration for each instrument.

The following must accompany each video submission in order for your entry to be complete on registration form: 1) Applicant's address, email, telephone number, and age; and 2) a non-refundable application fee, submitted via Paypal or credit card through "SixStringTheory.com." Incomplete entries will not be considered. For any questions regarding the Application Process, please contact us at: 6stringtheory@gmail.com.

Disclaimer: We download all YouTube video submissions (at keepvid.com) and then upload the videos to flash drives for our judge's ease. Your YouTube video view count does not necessarily reflect the total views from Six String Theory judges.

To be eligible, Six String Theory Scholarship candidates must apply to Berklee College of Music's undergraduate program for Spring 2019 (deadline August 1, 2018). During the admissions process, Berklee may choose to award a Berklee College of Music undergraduate scholarship separate from the Six String Theory Competition Scholarship decision.

Berklee was founded on the revolutionary principle that the best way to prepare students for careers in music is through the study and practice of contemporary music. For more than half a century, the college has evolved to reflect the state of the art of music and the music business, leading the way with the world's first baccalaureate studies in jazz, rock, electric guitar, film scoring, songwriting, turntables, electronic production, and more than a dozen other genres and fields of study. With a diverse and talented student body representing 96 countries, and alumni who have collectively won more than 250 Grammys and Latin Grammys, Berklee is the world's premier learning lab for the music of today—and tomorrow.

Berklee Online is the online school of Berklee College of Music, delivering access to Berklee's acclaimed curriculum from anywhere in the world. Berklee Online's award-winning online courses, multi-course certificate programs, and undergraduate and graduate degree programs are accredited and taught by the college's world-renowned faculty, providing lifelong learning opportunities to people interested in music and working in the music industry.

Students currently attending other universities are eligible to win the scholarships. There is a maximum credit transfer limit of 24 credits. Other than some music history and music business courses, Berklee does not award transfer credits for music courses.

If you feel you have expertise in a music course, you may speak with the relevant department chair at Berklee about the possibility of credit by exam. Core music material (harmony, arranging) can test out levels, so you don't have to start to at first level if advanced.
